

Georgie Porgie

Georgie Porgie, puddin' and pie

Hickory Dickory Dock

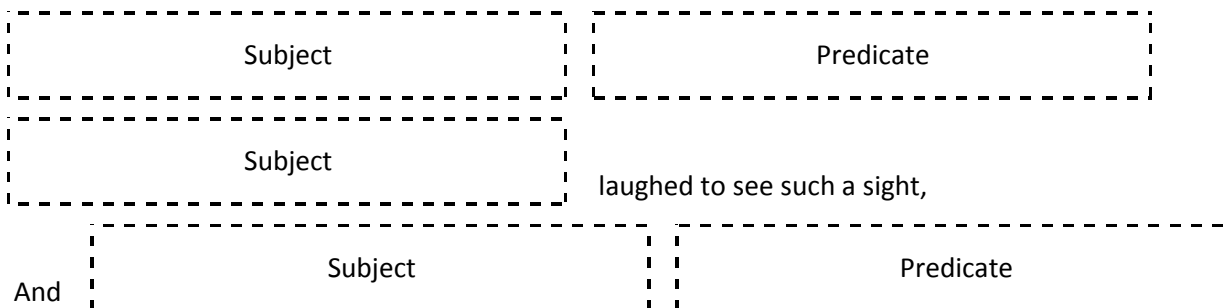

Hickory dickory dock

Hickory dickory dock

Hey Diddle, Diddle

Hey diddle, diddle, the cat and the fiddle,

Diddle Diddle Dumpling

Diddle, diddle, dumpling,

Subject

Predicate

with his trousers on

One stocking off and one stocking on,

Diddle, diddle, dumpling,

Subject

Humpty Dumpty

Subject

Predicate

Subject

Predicate

Subject

Predicate

Jack and Jill

Subject

and Subject

Predicate

to fetch a pail of water

Subject

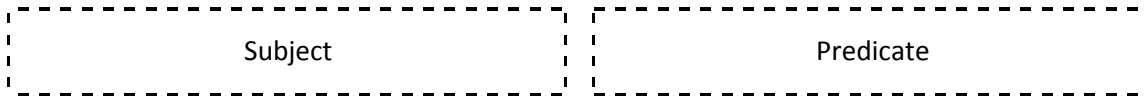

Predicate and

Predicate

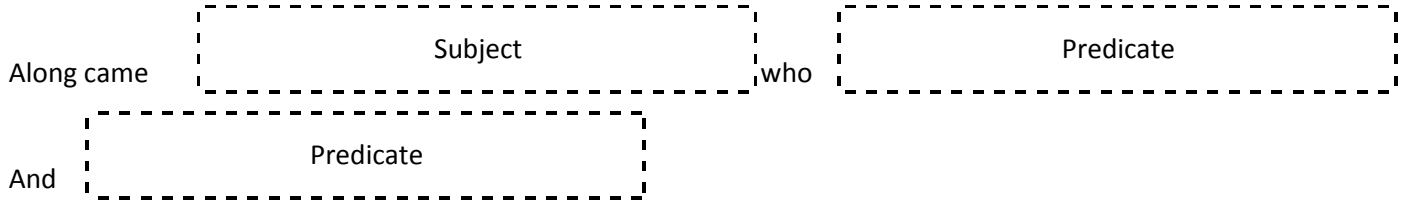

and Subject

Predicate

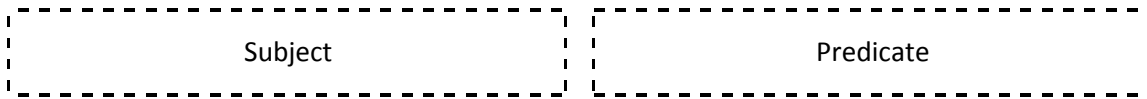

Little Miss Muffet

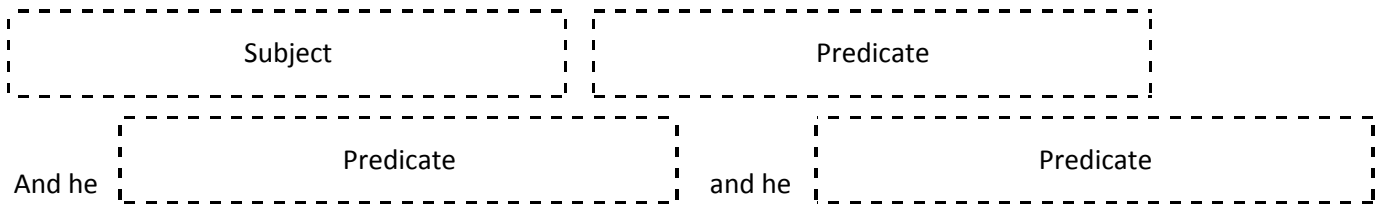

Eating her curds and whey

Old King Cole

and a merry old soul was he

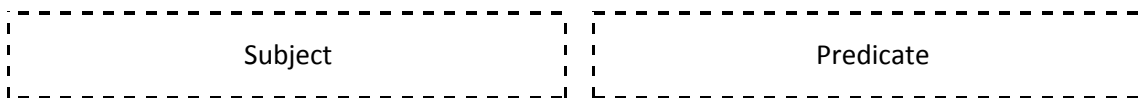

Sing a Song of Sixpence

Sing a song of sixpence, a pocket full of rye

When the pie was opened

Wasn't that a dainty dish to set before the king?

Three Blind Mice

Subject (repeat)

See how they run, see how they run

They all Predicate

Who cut off their tails with a carving knife

Have you ever seen such a sight in your life as

Subject

There Was a Crooked Man

There was Subject who Predicate

And Predicate upon a crooked stile

He Predicate which Predicate

And they all Predicate

This Little Piggy

Subject	Predicate
Subject	Predicate
Subject	Predicate
Subject	Predicate
Subject	Predicate

The Eensy, Weensy Spider

Subject	Predicate
Down came the rain and	Predicate
Out came the sun and	Predicate
And	Subject	Predicate

Little Jack Horner

Subject	Predicate
---------	-----------

Eating a Christmas pie

Subject	Predicate
And	Predicate	and	Predicate