

A Subtle Change

Column one contains the old word. Column two contains the definition of a new word which can be determined by changing one letter of the old word. Write the new word in column three, and the new letter in column four. Read vertically down column four to discover the secret identity.

Old Word	Definition of New Word	New Word	New Letter
Strike	Alternating lines of color
Batter	Something between good and best
Sheep	A sharp incline
Small	The sense that uses your nose
Bloom	Used to sweep the floor with
Hello	A stringed instrument
Farms	Papers you fill out
Smart	The beginning
Vowel	An absorbent cloth
Bane	Piece of a skeleton
Stake	A slithering serpent
Shrill	Sensation of excitement and pleasure
Shock	A run-down house
Chops	A salty snack made from potatoes
Child	A sensation of cold, usually with shivering		